An outstanding 140 Year old townhouse located in a very prestigious residential area of Lija's village core. This four-bedroom property is one of Malta's most spectacular private homes, which has been carefully maintained by the same family for three generations. Throughout the property, there are exquisite period features including wrought iron balustrades, large wooden balconies, flagstone flooring, an authentic spiral staircase, a large underlying war shelter, original wooden apertures, impressive frescos and murals throughout, a...
