An impeccably converted double-fronted House of Character, originally built in the 15th century, and situated within the Urban Conservation Area of Naxxar, one of the island's most sought-after locations. This remarkable home enjoys two separate entrances and beautifully combines authentic period features with contemporary finishes. Traditional elements such as xorok (stone ceiling slabs), kileb (stone-carved supports), arches, flagstone flooring, a private well, exposed beams, and stripped stone walls have been lovingly preserved, while modern enhancements...
